

Name _____

Date _____ Period _____

QUICK Worksheet 2: The QUICK Quiz

Directions: First go to: <http://www.avon.k12.ct.us/enrichment/Enrich/quickgr4-0.htm>. Use the information to take this QUICK quiz.

1. The site has been written by someone called Dr Cyberquack. No one you know has heard of him. What would you do to find out more about him?

- a. Look to see if there is more information about him somewhere else on the site
- b. Look him up in the library
- c. Look in the phone book

2. What do you think the real aim of the site is?

- a. To give you information about exercise.
- b. To explain the importance of exercise.
- c. To sell you "Flubbleballs".

3. If this web site's aim is to try to sell you "Flubbleballs", do you think it achieves this?

- a. Yes.
- b. No.

4. If you were searching the Internet for information on how exercise increases fitness would this site be relevant to you?

- a. Yes
- b. No

5. Dr. Bob gives you some proof that exercise is good for you. How would you go about checking the claims?

- a. Follow the link to Dr. Bob to see who he was.
- b. Find out somewhere else about exercise.
- c. E-mail Cyberquack.
- d. I wouldn't need to because he's already proved it.

6. What else would you try?

- a. Find out somewhere else about exercise.
- b. E-mail Cyberquack.
- c. I wouldn't need to because he's already proved it.

7. When you look for details about Dr. Bob you find this information. How would you check that he really did work for the Big University?
- Look at the page on the Big University web site to see if he is mentioned there.
 - Look at his e-mail address to see if it mentions the Big University or has .ac or .edu in it.
 - Just take his word for it that he does.
8. You see that the page was last updated just one week ago. What does this tell you about the information contained on it?
- The information is current.
 - The information could be old.
 - The information could be old or current.
9. Which of these statements best describes the site?
- The site is completely biased. It only tells you one side of the story.
 - The site is biased, but it does provide some balanced information as well.
 - The site is unbiased. It just happens to be an advertisement as well.
 - The site is well balanced and unbiased.
10. What choices does the site tell you you have?
- Flubbleball is the only way of getting fit.
 - Flubbleball is the main way but there are others, although there is no other information.
 - It tells you about all the options available to you