

First and Last Name

Date

Period

Vocabulary 1

science – observing and describing the natural world

science – observing and describing the natural world

world natural the describing and observing – science measurement – to find a quantity (number) like amount or size

measurement – to find a quantity (number) like amount or size size or amount like (number) quantity a find to – measurement scientific method – a series of steps that scientists use to answer questions and solve problems

scientific method – a series of steps that scientists use to answer questions and solve problems

problems solve and questions answer to use scientists that steps of series a – method scientific hypothesis – a possible explanation or answer to a question (educated guess)

hypothesis – a possible explanation or answer to a question (educated guess)

(guess educated) question a to answer or explanation possible a – hypothesis observation – to study closely by using the 5 senses (sight, hearing, smell, taste and touch)

observation – to study closely by using the 5 senses (sight, hearing, smell, taste and touch)

(touch and taste, smell, hearing, sight) senses 5 the using by closely study to – observation